

French Super Curricular Activities

KS3

Please update the Form on the School website to record the Super-curricular activity you have completed

 Read	 Watch/Listen
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Read the book 'Lost in Translation: An Illustrated Compendium of Untranslatable Words from Around the World' by Ella Frances Sanders – a beautiful book that looks at how different cultures express unique ideas through their language. Indulge in the French classic Le Petit Prince by Antoine de Saint-Exupéry. Comic book or bande dessinée culture is massive in the Francophone world, try one of the originals such as Astérix et Obélix or Le Petit Nicolas, or the more recent Les Crimes à la Ferme, a farm-based detective series starring Inspecteur Biquette. Choose one of the French short stories here from The French Experiment, and see how much you understand. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Watch the original French version of Miraculous: Les Aventures de Ladybug et Chat Noir Watch Bob l'Éponge on Youtube here, or go to the French Peppa Pig channel here – watching familiar cartoons in the language that you are learning really helps your listening skills On Netflix, watch the film Les Dix Jours en Or On Youtube, watch the French classic Astérix et Obélix
 Visit	 Create/Explore
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Visit the Ciné Lumière at the Institut Français to watch a French film 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Taking inspiration from bandes dessinées, create your own French comic book character, and the opening scene to their story. Try to follow the instructions of one of these recipes in French and make something delicious

KS4

 Read	 Watch/Listen
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Follow this link to find sources for artwork about the 'banlieues' and reflect on their representation in France. Read the book 'How Language Works: How Babies Babble, Words Change Meaning, and Languages Live or Die' by David Crystal, a book full of 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Listen to the News in Slow French podcast here to learn about current affairs and build your listening skills Try listening to the Duolingo French podcast here

interesting facts about how children acquire language, dialects, and the future of language. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Try reading La Quête d'Ewilan by Pierre Bottero, a trilogy following the adventures of an orphan called Ewilan. Comic book or bande dessinée culture is massive in the Francophone world, try one of the originals such as Astérix et Obélix or Le Petit Nicolas, or the more recent Les Crimes à la Ferme, a farm-based detective series starring Inspecteur Biquette. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> On Netflix, watch C'est du gâteau - it's a baking competition where catastrophe-prone home bakers compete for a €5000 prize Build your listening skills and listen to new music at the same time using https://www.lyricsgaps.com/ Watch Kirikou et La Sorcière, a famous French animated film based on West African fairy tales
 Visit	 Create/Explore
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Visit the Ciné Lumière at the Institut Français to watch a French film BFI Cinema 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Explore the Top 50 Chart in France here to see what music is popular there now, and create your own French playlist on Spotify or Youtube to share with the class in September Try to follow the instructions of one of these recipes in French and make something delicious or create your own recipe and make a video to share in French.