

ONCE A TECHIE, ALWAYS A TECHIE!

The Music Technology department would love for you to continue to stay cognitively engaged over the coming weeks and months, despite the cancellation of this year's exams. The following are suggestions, they are not compulsory, but we would love for you to engage in any that you find interesting.

Music Technology from Scratch – Rhinegold Education

See Mr Robinson if you would like to borrow a copy from the music department

Note: There aren't too many published books on this subject due to the rapid change of the industry. Instead, why not go and find some free concerts in London over the summer and sit near the sound desk!

Purchase a copy of SoundOnSound magazine and find an article in it that you enjoy. This magazine is aimed at Music Technologists (Techies) and introduces them to new developments as well as having focussed interviews etc.

5 iconic artists to listen to:

- Kate Bush
- Led Zeppelin
- Electric Light Orchestra
- Prince
- Neneh Cherry

5 experimental artists to listen to:

- Bjork
- Tori Amos
- Sigur Ros
- Múm
- The Cinematic Orchestra

'Get Back'
Disney+

This documentary was recorded a few miles up the road and shows how The Beatles prepared for a live show at the height of their fame. This shows the creative process that made them such an important part of music history.

'Iron Maiden – Behind the Beast'

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=XXHHgIAcSY>

This documentary goes behind the scenes of one of England's most iconic heavy rock bands as they embark on a World tour. This is a fantastic film that really shows the diversity of jobs available in the industry.

Education is a lifelong learning adventure.

Never stop.